

Professional Judgment – 2018-2019

STUDENT INFORMATION

Name: _____ ACC Student ID: _____

Professional judgment involves reviewing your financial aid application when you or your parent or spouse experience a change in income or expenses that was not reflected on your 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). A professional judgment may be granted when changes in income or assets are significant enough to result in increased aid eligibility.

WHAT ADJUSTMENTS MAY BE CONSIDERED?

Adjustments may be considered for loss of income for the following reasons:

- Job termination, reduction of hours worked, or retirement
- Marriage, divorce, separation, or death of spouse after FAFSA filing
- Loss or reduction of taxable social security benefits
- Changes in child support or alimony paid or received
- Adjustments to parent income for non-discretionary medical, dental, or disability expenses paid during the tax year (must exceed 11% of the “Income protection allowance”)
- Other circumstances- please contact the Financial Aid office before submitting this appeal

HOW DO I REQUEST A PROFESSIONAL JUDGMENT REVIEW?

Complete a 2018-2019 FAFSA online at www.fafsa.gov. Then, complete this professional judgment form and provide all requested documentation as listed on page two. Additional documents may be requested later.

Once this application is submitted, your file will be verified to check your initial FAFSA information. This may result in a change to your current eligibility before the professional judgment is even processed.

HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE?

Your professional judgment request cannot be processed until your original application for financial aid has been completed and verified. Please allow four to six weeks for processing the request after your original application has been processed and the required documentation has been received.

WILL I GET MORE AID?

If the professional judgment results in increased eligibility for aid, you may receive additional assistance. Adjustment to income, however, does not guarantee that additional aid will be awarded. If you have lost income based on one or more of the conditions listed, adjustment to your 2018-2019 FAFSA may be possible if your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is not already zero. If your EFC is zero, a professional judgment will not change your eligibility for need-based aid.
