

Fall 2017 CCR 093 and Corequisite Course Options

Do you need to take your CCR reading and writing requirement this semester? If so, consider enrolling in CCR093.

CCR093 is a college reading and writing readiness course that is paired with one of these transfer-level content courses: COM115, COM125, MUS 120, or GEO105. In CCR 093, you will refine your reading and writing skills through a range of readings and writing assignments all connected to the course theme of “Personal Identity Development.” Learn how your identity is shaped by your family, your friends, your genes, and by your society while improving your college reading and writing skills.

Discuss your course options with an Academic Advisor to see which General Education course will work best for your degree or certificate requirements. After advising, you will register for the CCR 093 and one transfer-level course by following these instructions:

1. In the MyACC Student Tab, select “Look Up Classes” in the “Registration Tools” section
2. Select “Fall 2017” from the drop-down menu and click [Submit]
3. In Look Up Classes, first find the Corequisite transfer-level course you discussed with your Advisor. Start by highlighting the subject you want, “Communication,” “Music,” or “Geography,” then click [Course Search]
4. Find an open class from corequisite transfer-level course choices below. Find the CRN for an open course as you discussed with your academic advisor and verify that the number is listed below in the set of corequisite choices. If the CRN matches one listed here, check the open box and click the [Add to Worksheet] button at the bottom
